Help Needed

The purchase of the Stulting home at Hillsboro, the birthplace of world-famous novelist Pearl Buck, will develop into a major attraction in our county in the years to come. The house will be bought by donations from the people and presented to Miss Buck, to be returned to the State at her death.

Pocahontas stands to gain the most by having this beautiful home restored. The get-up-and-go was provided by outsiders but let us join in the donation drive, quickly.

Courthouse News

On July 11 the Republican Executive Committee placed the name of Kenneth G. Kelley with the Circuit Clerk as the Republican candidate for Assessor.

The final day for the Executive Committees to fill vacancies on the ballot is August 29.

Terra Alta Limestone Company was the low bidder for resurfacing 4.13 miles of W. Va. 28 between Green Bank and Dunmore at $70,001.50.

Received Degree

Rev. Donald Flynn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Flynn, formerly of Pocahontas County received the degree of Doctor of Education at the Commencement exercises of the University of Virginia, June 7.

Dr. Flynn received the A B degree from West Virginia Wesleyan College; the B. D. from Duke University; and the M. A. from Scarritt College, Nashville, Tennessee. He has served churches in Greene and Augusta counties in Virginia. He has also served as Professor of Religious Education at Ferrum College, and as Head of the Department of Religious Education and Director of Group Ministry at West Virginia Wesleyan College. He is now in his sixth year as director of Bath County Larger Parish of the Methodist Church Hot Springs, Virginia.

Dr. Flynn is the third member of his family to receive the degree of Doctor of Education at the University of Virginia. His father, Dr. Luther Flynn of Herndon, Virginia, received the degree some years ago. Then later, his brother, Dr. Paul Spencer Flynn, Director of Audio-Visual Aids in the State Department of Education of North Carolina, received the same degree.

A very pleasant occasion followed the graduation exercises when all the families of Dr. and Mrs. Luther Flynn gathered around the banquet table for a fellowship dinner. There were present their two sons, Dr. and Mr. Paul Spencer Flynn, their children, Jennifer Kay, Paul Spencer, Jr., and Della Susan; Dr. and Mrs. Luther Flynn with their two sons, Mark Warren and Paul Jeffrey; their daughter, Mrs. Annette Everard with her husband, Miles, and their son, Timothy. Present also were Dr. Luther Flynn's sister, Mrs. Frona Williams of Durbin, and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hoesie and their son, Bruce, of Lexington, Kentucky. Mrs. Hoesie is a sister of Mrs. Donald Flynn.

Boys and Girls in Service

July 14, 1964

Mrs. Thomas R. Dunbrack Marlinton, West Virginia My Dear Mrs. Dunbrack, I am pleased to inform you that your husband has been selected from a group of three hundred men as the "Outstanding Sailor" of Patrol Squadron EIGHT for April, May and June of 1964.

As a member of Avionics Weapons Division, your husband's outstanding conduct and performance of duty serve to exhibit those qualities of loyalty and integrity desired by the United States Navy. His selection was based upon his professional performance, military behavior, military appearance; leadership, adaptability, initiative, and outstanding contribution to Patrol Squadron EIGHT.

May I extend to you, as I have to Thomas, my personal congratulations for this singular honor.

Sincerely yours,
D. R. Johnson
Commander, U. S. Navy
Commanding Officer

Second Lieutenant George W. Clarkson will be at the Medical Service School U. S. Air Force (A T C) at the Air Force Base at Montgomery, Alabama, for three weeks for basic training, after which he will be stationed at U. S. A. F. Carswell Hospital, Carswell AFB, Fort Worth, Texas. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Odie Clarkson, of Marlinton.

Sgt. E5 Eugene R. Madison spent a few days last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Madison. After his return to Hopewell, Virginia, he left for overseas duty from Fort Dix, New Jersey, on July 24.

Brunswick, Maine (FHTNC) Samuel M. Arbogast, aviation machinist's mate third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph M. Arbogast, of Mill Point, is a crewmember of Patrol Squadron Ten based at the Naval Air Station, Brunswick, Maine.

The squadron flies the Lockheed "Neptune" patrol bomber in anti-submarine and merchant ship surveillance missions over the North Atlantic. It periodically serves a tour of duty with the Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean.

Biloxi, Mississippi—Master Sergeant Billie L. Bryant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bart C. Bryant, of Route 1, Taylorville, Mississippi, has arrived for duty at Keesler AFB, Mississippi, after a tour of service in England.

Sergeant Bryant is a private as first sergeant of the 3383rd School Squadron at Keesler. His squadron supports the Air Training Command mission of training airmen and officers in the diverse skills required by the nation's aerospace force.

His wife, Lucille, is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Theodore G. Alderman, of Huntersville.

The Sergeant is a graduate of Taylorsville High School and a former student at Jones Co Junior College, Ellisville, Mississippi, and West Virginia University in Morgantown.

Wichita Falls, Texas—Airman Third Class Sidney A. Jack, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert A. Jack, of 717 Eighth Street, has graduated from the technical training course for U. S. Air Force electrical power production specialists at Sheppard AFB, Texas.

Airman Jack, who learned to operate and repair diesel engine generators, is being assigned to a Tactical Air Command (TAC) unit at Luke AFB, Arizona. His unit supports the TAC mission of providing firepower and other air support to U. S. Army forces.

The airman is a graduate of Marlinton High School and a former student at West Virginia University.

Mr. and Mrs. Tiney McComb and daughter, Connie, are now living in Proctorville, Ohio. He has been promoted to assistant manager of Park Loan, Inc., of Chesapeake, Ohio. Tiney is the son of Clarence McComb, of Huntersville, and his wife is the former Helena Taylor.

Eight U. S. Army, Korea (A HTNC)—Army Private Clyde W. Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde S. Nelson, of Durbin, was assigned to the 88th Artillery Brigade in Korea, July 11.

The 22-year-old soldier, a crewman in Battery E, 4th Battalion of the brigade's 44th Artillery in Korea, entered the Army in January 1964. He completed basic training at Fort Jackson, South Carolina, and was last assigned at Fort Bliss, Texas.

Nelson is a 1960 graduate of Green Bank High School.

Before entering the Army, he was employed by Plyler's Esso Service Station in Bartow

John Oscar Smith died October 13, 1961, leaving behind his wife, the former Valie Clarkson, of Cass, and three small children, Viola 7 years, Kenneth 4 years, and Thelma just a baby. At the request of their father, their mother took them to Mooseheart, Illinois, when Thelma was sixteen months old. On July 6, 1964, Kenneth and his wife, Carl and their two sons, David and Wayne, and their daughters, Pam and Thelma, started from Illinois to visit their grandma, Mertie Clarkson and relatives in Cass. Their father's home was at Mace. The children's mother used to travel with the three little ones in the cab of old No. 4 Shay to visit their father's folks. The last ride they made together Thelma was six months, Kenneth 3 years and Viola 6 years old. July 8, 1964, their mother joined them again in a most wonderful ride on No. 4 Shay. It brought both tears of joy and old memories to us all. We were sorry Viola could not be with us. Kenneth is now 37 years old, and Thelma is 33 years.

Many years have come and gone since the Smith family departed from Cass. Thanks to one and all for our lovely visit with our loved ones and friends. God bless you all.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hall, of Sheffield, Pennsylvania, are spending their vacation with their mother, Mrs. May Hall, at Hillsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bear were at Claytor Lake and Rural Retreat over the weekend for the 40th wedding anniversary of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Taliaferro.

FARTHER THAN THE HAND CAN REACH will be the benefits to West Virginia from the new $100,000 Visitors Center to be constructed at Cranberry Glades in the Monongahela National Forest. Here, U. S. Senator Robert C. Byrd (D-W. Va.), right, who guided the appropriation for the information center through to success, indicates the area to be served by the new tourist facility. Ready to give the go-ahead for its construction is Hamilton H. Pyles, left, Deputy Director of the U. S. Forest Service which will staff and operate the Center. In addition to providing information about the Cranberry Glades, the Center will present exhibits and photographic displays of the scenic countryside. To be located at the junction of the Highland Scenic Highway and West Virginia Route 39, it will offer a panoramic view of the Cranberry Glades.
